

Organization of the State Examination (SE) for the academic year 2024/2025

state examination terms: winter (January - February) spring (May - June)
 summer (August)

Department	Established rules
Department of Philosophy and Social Sciences	The final thesis defense is always the first part of the final examination in which the student participates. Other parts of the SE may take place on the same or a different term than the defense, but all at the same time.
Department of Political Science	The final thesis defense is always the first part of the final examination in which the student participates. Other parts of the SE may take place on the same or a different term than the defense, but all at the same time.
Institute of History	The student must register for the final thesis defense and the other parts of the final examination in the same term.