

Directive of the Director of the Institute of History, Philosophical Faculty, University of Hradec Králové No. 1/2024

In accordance with the Directive of the Dean of the Philosophical Faculty, University of Hradec Králové No. 17/2018 and the Directive of the Dean of the Philosophical Faculty, University of Hradec Králové No. 21/2020, I hereby establish the basic parameters for the preparation of final theses, i.e., bachelor's and master's theses (hereinafter referred to as "theses"), for students enrolled in study programs conducted at Institute of History of the Philosophical Faculty, University of Hradec Králové.

A mandatory component of all theses is original research based on the use of sources, which may include written sources (archival or published, including textbook texts), visual, material, or other relevant sources. A thesis cannot merely be a compilation based on secondary literature.
