HISTORIA APERTA
DIGITAL HUMANITIES

Call for paper

HISTORIA APERTA
DIGITAL HUMANITIES

The journal Historia Aperta invites submissions for the next issue, which will focus on Digital Humanities. We also welcome articles focused on the use of Artificial Intelligence (AI) in this field, and we accept submissions in both Czech and English.

Submission topics may include, but are not limited to:
- the use of modern technologies in historical research,
- digitization and preservation of cultural heritage,
- analysis of historical data using AI and machine learning,
- digital archiving and management of historical sources,
- digital Humanities in Education,
- the impact of digital media on the perception and interpretation of history,
- 3D documentation of historical monuments
- and more.

Historia Aperta is an open access peer-reviewed scholarly journal focusing on the history of the Czech lands and the (Central) European region. The journal publishes scholarly and interdisciplinary contributions and will now focus on those related to the digital humanities.

Deadline for submissions: 1st November 2024

E-mail for submissions: klara.rybenska@uhk.cz

Historia Aperta, formerly known as East Bohemian Historical Letters, is published twice a year by the University of Hradec Kralove.