

International Section, Room A7

Social Work – An (un)safe profession in (un)safe times?

Host: Mgr. Jan Hloušek, Ph.D., PhDr. Martin Smutek, Ph.D.

19th September 2024, Thursday

Section starts at: 14:00 – 14:05

Papers should be presented for 15 minutes. Followed by 10-minutes-long discussion.

14:05 - Rafał Iwański – University of Szczecin	Social work in an ageing society
14:30 – Sonia Brito-Costa, Sofia Silva – Coimbra Education School, Polytechnic of Coimbra	Can Theatre of the Oppressed serve as a safe pedagogical tool for higher education students engaged in social studies?
14:55 - Chuk Bahadur Gurung– Shree Bhumi Devi Sevondary School	Unsafe Conditions in Social Work Education
Coffee Break (15:20 – 15:40)
15:40 - Malcolm Fisk – University of Central Lancashire	New Thinking on Socio-Technical Theory: From Marx to the Metaverse
16:05 - Martin Smutek, Jan Hloušek – University Hradec Králové	(Un)safe times in Huntington's and Fukuyama's concept - What vision of the world does the contemporary concept of social work correspond to?
16:30 - Jan Hloušek – University Hradec Králové Mário Montéz – Coimbra Education School, Polytechnic of Coimbra	Is Community a Safe Place in Dangerous Times?

Section ends after last presented paper (16:55).

Please be aware that the programme can be changed due to various reasons.